

in by the company, and printed under the authority of the Legislature.

5. Ordered, That the President and Chief Engineer of said company do come within the scope of the orders aforesaid, and the reply is, therefore, unsatisfactory, inasmuch as it does not inform this House what compensation, if any, they are to receive for their services, nor the fund or source, from which said compensation is to be paid.

6. Ordered therefore, That the President of said company amend his reply in the particulars above specified and pointed out; and that he particularly inform this House of the "cost of the extra copies, &c., which were printed by authority of this House," specifying such copies; and that he inform this House what portion of the sum of $534 88, was paid to each of the officers referred to in said reply.

7. Ordered also, That the President of said company inform this House, whether any officer of said company has at any time paid out, or appropriated any portion of the funds of said company, without an order, or resolution of the Board of Directors or of the Stockholders assembled.

Which were read, and

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

Ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Muse reported a bill entitled, an act authorising the sale of certain real estate therein mentioned;

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, passed and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Johnson, chairman of the committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill entitled, a further additional supplement to the act entitled, an act for the general valuation and assessment of property, and to provide a tax to pay the debts of the State, passed at March session 1841, ch. 23;

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Ghiselin,

The House took up for consideration the unfavorable report submitted by Mr. Graves, on the 22nd January, upon the memorial of Flannigan and Trimble and others, asking permission for the banks to issue small notes, and the substitute offered therefor by Mr. Ghiselin, on the 25th January, being a bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled an act to provide for specie payments by the banks.

Mr. Biser moved to refer said report and substitute to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Gallagher moved to postpone said report and substitute to Tuesday next;

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put on the motion of Mr. Biser, to refer said report and substitute to the committee on Corporations, and Determined in the negative.
